News Release Emergency Communication Specialist Graduation

November 11, 2009 - Hobbs Police Department is proud to announce the graduation of Emergency Communication Specialist Amie Ramirez from the New Mexico Law Enforcement Academy in Santa Fe, NM. Ramirez completed a three week intensive training course required by the State of New Mexico. The courses included Crises Intervention, Interactions with Persons Suspected of Suffering from Mental Illness, Handling Suicidal Callers, Domestic Violence, Orders of Protection, Court Room Testimony and 40 hours of National Crime Information Center training. Ramirez is now a certified Police Radio Dispatcher through the State of New Mexico.

HPD is very proud of Amie and her significant accomplishments.

Hobbs Police Department is also very pleased to announce that the Dispatch Center is fully staffed with well trained and certified Telecommunication Officers. All Telecommunication Officers are trained and certified in Priority Medical Dispatch as well.

Hobbs Police Department's dispatch center receives emergency 911 and non-emergency calls for and dispatches Police, Fire and EMS.
